Hunter is an amazing TA. He is an excellent teacher. He is responsive to all types of questions and is flexible to tailor the discussion materials towards what the students need. He is extremely knowledgeable on the subject matter and has excellent office hour availability. I would be grateful to have him as a full professor for any of my courses. He consistently goes above and beyond what is required of him, maintaining superior communication and providing excellent study materials.
Hunter is amazing and an analysis legend. He was always timely with grading assignments which let me know how I was keeping up with material and he was always detailed in office hours and email responses. Totally recommend!
Hunter is a great TA. He is very punctual with grading and responding to emails with questions I had about the course. He makes everything seem so easy, so I feel a bit inadequate, but that just goes to show how much more I have to learn. I hope to have him as a TA in the future.
The TA was incredibly knowledgeable and helpful. He was very active when we had homework questions or errors posted on piazza.
During discussion sections the TA did a good job explaining extra concepts and clarifying things discussed in class. In my opinion it would have been more helpful if more discussion time was set aside for student questions.
Hunter is very good at providing enlightening examples and keeping a lighthearted air in a very discouraging class. His discussions are interesting and usually related very well to the lecture content, while also being particularly applicable to the homework for the week.
The best TA I have had thus far, and the best TA I could expect to ever have again. Truly committed to putting in the work so that we are excited about the topics and understand them well, not to mention always willing to engage very deeply with the course materials so that the students can understand what is going on. TAing for a class like this is really hard, and his conviction and punctuality with everything including grading make him indispensable to every single one of the students in this class. Thanks Hunter, it was really good morally speaking, and I'm glad there are some dudes like you out there.
